

Muriel Abouross

Biography

Profession : Director/Cinematographer

A multiple award-winning cinematographer from Beirut-Lebanon, considered to be the first cinematographer in the Arab world.

Her cinematography includes footage for a great deal of documentaries, such as the award winning films «The Oil Spill», «Lesson in History», «Mercedes», "YaOmri" by HadyZaccak, and feature films such as Michel Kammoun's Falafel and George Hashem's Stray Bullet.

As a teacher and lecturer she created led film workshops within the Cine-Jam film lab project.

In 2014, she debuted as a director with the documentary web-series Zyara, produced by her own production hub Home of cine-jam, which she set up together with Denise Jabbour.

Zyara has won more than 27 international awards and the journey continues as Zyara is today her cinematic humanitarian mission.
